WELCOME!

Equine Miniatures is a fast-growing and fascinating facet of the fine miniatures genre. From saddles to harnesses, fine customized model horses to factory collectibles, this hobby has much to offer many people who have a penchant for miniatures and horses. Model Horse Showing is a growing activity, whereby model horses are set up in realistic scenes with true-to-life miniature tack and props. Shows abound nation-wide and year-round, with room for beginners and youth along with experienced, long-time exhibitors. Supplying tack to hobbyists for competitive showing is how Rio Rondo got its start, and now we provide supplies to other artisans from coast to coast and around the world.

Whether you plan to show miniatures, simply display them at home, or create them for the sheer pleasure of the craft, Rio Rondo is the place to shop for the most unique selection of horse-related miniature supplies. Most of the specialty items found in this catalog are Rio Rondo exclusives—designed by and produced for Rio Rondo—items you simply cannot find anywhere else! Rio Rondo has been providing supplies to model horse enthusiasts since 1983.

So . . . take a few moments to browse through our latest catalog, and enjoy! You're sure to end up with many new ideas for your miniature projects, and we'd love having you as a customer in the near future!

Size & Scale . . .

Traditional Scale (Trad.) includes Peter Stone™ and Breyer™ model horses of the larger size, as well as other brands and molds of similar dimensions.

Classic Scale (Clas.) is approximately 1:12 (dollhouse) scale, and includes mid-sized plastic models and accommodates some ceramic brands such as Haagen-Renaker, and the Peter Stone™ Pony.

Color Choices

Please specify the color of items you order where applicable. Many kits containing strap goods such as bridles and halters may come in several colors. The basic color choice key is:

K=Black B=Brown R=Rust N=Natural

For metal items that come in silver or gold colors the key codes are:

S=Silver Color G=Gold Color

Ordering Example: KH1t-b = Stock Halter Kit/Brown color B12s = B12 buckle in silver color

If no color choice for items available in several colors is indicated on your order form, we will ship the most commonly requested color for that item.

Units . . .

The "UNIT" column on your order form means how the item is packaged and sold—for example, "each", "set", "pack", "pair", "sheet", etc.

Etched Items

If you are ordering etched items such as buckles, slotted rings or hardware sheet assortments, we strongly recommend that you cut the pieces out of the sheets, rather than bend them apart. Any small pair of cutters will do. Start by cutting one or two edges of the 'frame' off of the sheet, then remove the parts in strips, and cut the strips apart. Sometimes bending the parts off the sheets will cause the parts to warp or break.

Special Orders

Some items not shown or expressly offered in our catalog may be special ordered. Most notably, this would include items available in gold such as lacing, wire and sheet stock. If you have a need for these items, please inquire.

ETCHED DECORATIVES

Arabian Halter Charms & Parts

Tiny little Shark's Teeth, Coins, Charms, Endcaps and Lead Hooks to create your own custom Syrian, Bedouin and Egyptian style arabian halters. Use embroidery floss for the headstall. Chain used for the nose and chin straps can be attached to the halter rings using the End Caps. Since these parts are so tiny, you should plan on crafting your own jump/attachment rings from wire. Hobby craft wire in a small gauge will work well. Items shown at approx. 75% of actual size.

CONCHOS

Conchos add that western flair to most any item. Choose from cast pewter, handmade sterling or etched and plated styles. All conchos are sold individually.

CAST CONCHOS

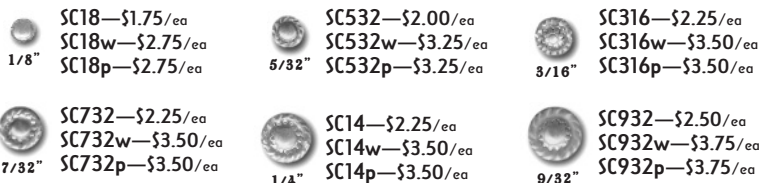

A peg on the back of these conchos affords secure attachment to many tack items. Item numbers with a "b" after them indicate double pegs that can be bent over to form a bar, and slipped onto a browband. CC55 and CC56 have 3 pegs and can be used as doll belt buckles.

HANDMADE SILVER CONCHOS

Sterling silver conchos are handcrafted and are available plain, wire-mounted (for use as saddle fastening conchos).

w=with wire p=with pin

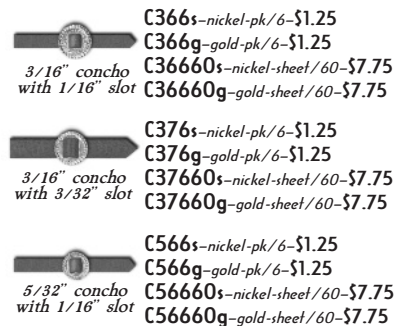

For Trad. Scale Horn Caps, use SC932 or SC14. For Clas. Scale, use SC316

Browband Conchos

These sterling silver handmade conchos feature a loop on the back to easily slip onto a browband. Sold in pairs.

Etched Slotted Conchos

ETCHED CONCHOS

Economical etched conchos can be glued on tack items or soldered to wires or pinheads for many decorative uses. Available in nickel and gold plate.

Utility Conchos

Decorative Conchos

Available on sheets featuring a range of sizes from 3/8" to 1/8". Perfect for creating themed tack items where you want the same design in various sizes. Like our utility conchos, these can be glued onto tack items, other etched plates or soldered to wires or pinheads for many decorative uses. Available in nickel and gold plate. Quantity discounts available.

Concho Sampler Sheets

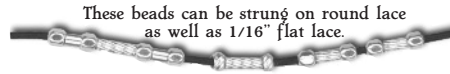

Three different sheets featuring a variety of conchos to add to any of your tack items. Use them as saddle conchos, brow conchos, stack them on top of our other plates... the options know no limits! Each sheet features up to 36 conchos in a variety of styles. All conchos are 1/4" (measured along the shorter dimension). Quantity discounts available. Available in Nickel and Gold Plate.

Concho sheets are $7.50 each. Images below are at about 75% actual size.

LEATHER LACE

ROUND LACE

1mm

Round lace is ideal for reins, bridles and special projects. Larger size beads will fit the 1mm lace.

*some beads may require an awl to open up the holes a little to fit on the lace. Please note also that the diameter will vary, and this product, like many other leathers, is not always consistent.

Leather Lace is a "must have" item for every tackmaker. Bridles, halters, straps and more are easily crafted from lace. All of our lace is currently made from kangaroo. Natural colored lace can be dyed. Also available in Red color (color code is -rd).

PATENT LEATHER

Patent Leather has an exceptionally glossy and smooth, slick surface. An excellent choice for harness and costume items and other special projects.

Sold in 5x6" and 6x10" pieces; available in black color.

LPT2k—5x6" black—$3.00 ea.

LPT4k—6x10" black—$6.00 ea.

TOOLING LEATHER

2-3 oz. natural-color tooling leather is thin enough for most miniature projects such as saddles, breastcollars and other items. Can be tooled, carved, or stamped, and dyed to your favorite color.

Blemished pieces (LT4) are suitable for cutting out smaller items and practice projects.

LT2 8.5 x 5.5" piece/best $5.75 ea.

LT4* 8.5 x 5.5" piece/blemished $3.25 ea.

LT3* scrap bag/small pieces $2.50 ea.

LT3 and LT4 "seconds" are on an "as available" basis.

Leather is a natural product, so it is important to know that all leathers will feature a certain amount of inconsistency, due to the uniqueness of the animal the leather came from. Scars, wrinkles and other small surface imperfections, as well as variations in thickness and texture, are all natural aspects of leather. Tooling leather in particular is subject to a certain amount of surface inconsistencies, although most can be tooled over, and dyed with no problem.

In regard to leather lace, splices may be found here and there and are standard in the manufacturing procedure. (There are no cows that we know of that are 50 yards long.)

SKIVER

Paper-thin sheepskin skiver is ideal for lining items such as breastcollars as well as crafting accessories such as boots. Also suitable for tack items for very small scales. The natural-colored skiver can be dyed to suit; black and brown colors have a semi-shiny finish. Sold in 5x6" pieces.

NOTE: Actual thickness may vary from piece to piece.

LK2n—natural—$3.25 ea.

Check for availability on Black and Brown Skiver.

From time to time we carry other leathers specially selected for miniatures projects. Check out our website at www.riorondo.com for the latest information.

Resins & More

W

When it comes to collecting and the hobby arts, resin-cast sculptures are in a class of their own. A step up from plastic, resins are often issued directly and exclusively from the sculpting artist (or their business partners) and the molding quality and details are exquisitely faithful to each original. Unpainted resin "bodies" (as we offer here) will require some seam preparation and priming before they are painted. (However, some people like to collect resins "as is"!) Some of the best tools for removing seams on resins and many other items are our Carbide Scrapers, found on Page 16.

BR8—Preparing Resins for Painting

Step-by-step guide tell you how to properly prepare and prime a resin-cast model for painting.

Free with your order or online download.

All resins shown here are "Traditional Scale" (1:9)

Rio Rondo's exclusive resins are cast in durable resin (the actual product you will receive is white colored) and are sculpted by Carol Williams. These editions are sold unfinished, for you to paint in your favorite colors and patterns in oils or acrylics.

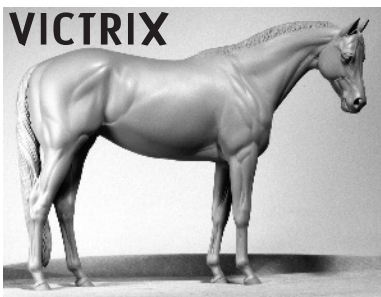

Please check our special webpage to see more pictures and which items we currently have in-stock and ready to ship!

TOOLBOX

There are a number of items and supplies you will need that are not provided in our kits. (Each kit includes a list of additional tools and items you will need.)

While you probably won't need or use all of the items for every project, this represents a good selection of items to keep handy on your workbench.

- ◆ Small Needle-Nose Pliers with cutters
- ◆ Sharp Scissors
- ◆ Hobby Knife and Blades
- ◆ Small "00" size hole punch (or small brad and a mallet)
- ◆ Awl (for making and enlarging holes)
- ◆ Nail Polish Remover (removes glue from fingers and tools)
- ◆ Small Paintbrush or Dauber for leather dye

- ◆ Glue Tips
- ◆ Black or Dark Brown paint pen marker
- ◆ 220 Grit Sandpaper
- ◆ Leather Dye, Finish & Solvent (rubbing alcohol can be substituted for dye solvent in most cases—read all label directions for further information on these items.)

Common Sense & Safety First

Many of the tools, supplies and substances used to create miniatures are potentially hazardous if used in a careless manner! Our kits are recommended for persons age 12 or above, but we also highly recommend that any young person assembling our kits or creating any miniature items be supervised and/or assisted by an adult.
